General information

The processing of data by ELSA Belgium aims at:

- Organising our events by foreseeing the number of participants as well as their names, being able to contact them, to share the needed information with them and to inform them about our future events;
- Improving our events;
- Improving our network and training our new members;
- Managing our network by knowing who our past and present members are and being able to contact them for ELSA-related purposes (organisation and promotion of our events as well as invitation to be part of them, development of our Alumni association,...);
- Allowing you to exercise your rights according to the GDPR;
- Making statistics with anonymised data.

This processing mainly concerns the name, contact details, year and place of studies, the branch of law studied and positions in ELSA of our members and of people attempting to our events. However, any information needed for organisational purposes is likely to be processed.

Every processing we make is always based :

- on the person's consent on the basis of Article 6.1 a) of the GDPR;
- on a contract or, at the request of the subject of the processing, on a potential contract between ELSA Belgium and the person on the basis of Article 6.1 b) of the GDPR;
- on a legitimate interest of ELSA Belgium, as understood under the recital 47 of Regulation, on the basis of Article 6.1 c) of the GDPR. This legitimate interest will always be precised as soon as possible, with respect to the articles 13 and 14 of the GDPR.

Therefore you can always refuse to share your data with us or withdraw your consent. However, this refusal or withdrawal could lead to the impossibility to let you attempt to our events or to become a member of the network.

Transfer of data

Your data are likely to be shared with the rest of the Belgian network if needed.

Your data will not be shared with ELSA sections located in third countries except when organising transnational events with other ELSA groups.

Your data are likely to be shared with ELSA International if needed for organisational purposes or legitimate reasons. When transferring the data to ELSA International we make sure that they offer a sufficient level of data protection. Furthermore, we will inform you of this transfer.

At any moment you can ask us whether your data has been transferred outside of the Belgian network, where it has been transferred when the transfer occurred. You can also ask our assistance to access the privacy policy of the concerned ELSA section.

We can not be held responsible if any other ELSA section within the EEA is not GDPR compliant and they should be held personally liable in case of any breach. This also applies to every ELSA section located in a country that has been considered as offering a sufficient level of protection by the European Commission through an Adequacy Decision.

Whenever your data has to be shared with another country than the above-mentioned ones, we make sure that the ELSA section offers a sufficient level of data protection.

Any transfer of data related to an International Programme falls under the Privacy Policies of ELSA International.

Your data will not be sent to any non-ELSA party without your explicit consent.
